Q1. Write your career objective.

Ans-1. I want be an expert in Cybersecurity. Currently I am building my foundation by learning basics of Linux and O.Networking. Two of the domains that I would like to have a career in, are, OSNIT and Fraud Analyst.

Q2. Why do you want to be an Engineer?

Ans-2. I want to be a Cybersecurity Engineer. My main reason to choose this field was to expose all the corrupt Indians Politicans who have illegally accumulated all the black money in their bank accounts, which actually was given to them for the betterment of Indians. My second reason is the criticism that India faces on Social Media Platforms, because of the growth scammers mainly from regions like Kolkata.

Q3. Write about projects or internship you have done/ are doing along with the learing.

Ans-3. I was doing a cybersecurity internship on a website called Forage, which gives us a real world idea of how a Cybersecurity team works. I made a file compressor in my 3rd semester, completely with AI. And now I am trying to make a clone of G.E.H.U website completely on our own.

Q4. What would you consider a significant achievement in your life and why?

Ans-4. For me, being an extrovert guy is a significant achievement. Till my school time, mainly during my 8th-12th class, I would talk only to a few number of people. But when I came to college I tried speaking to a lot of people, which help me to understand other person's perspective, the different mindset the people have. And most importantly it helped me improve my social well being.

Only professional achievement

Q5. Write about a failure of yours which you consider to share. What have you learned from it?

Ans-5. My biggest failure is keep repeating the same mistakes (like working at the last moment) again and again. The thing I would like to share is nothing changes in one day, you have to make improvements every single day.

Q6. What are your two strengths? Give one or two instances where you demonstrated your strength.

Ans-6. Two of my strengths are - problem solving
